History

Founded in 1996, DP Professionals (DPP), a certified woman-owned business, has made over 800 successful placements in the IT field. We have placed consultants and direct hires in federal and state government agencies as well in private industry and non-profit organizations.

DPP is skilled in recruiting professionals for all IT platforms. We understand the issues our clients face in finding candidates who possess the necessary technology skills and who will fit into the culture of their organization.

It's what we call the ideal fit.[®]

For over two decades, DPP has excelled in providing a solution to the information technology personnel needs of its customers. You can be assured that when you receive an applicant from DPP, the individual has been thoroughly qualified by our recruiting staff, and has the DPP seal of approval.

Current Operations

DPP is headquartered in Columbia, SC. We are registered as suppliers throughout the United States.

Our highly-trained team of recruiters and account managers use state-of-the-art technology to bolster their relationship-building and research skills.

Candidates are fully vetted before we present them to the client. We meet all our candidates in person or with visual conferencing tools.

- At DP Professionals, our ultimate goal is to provide you with outstanding information technology professionals who are the ideal fit.[®] for your company.
- Our thorough interview and screening process allows our clients to feel confident in our ability to present them with qualified personnel.
- Whether it's for short-term projects, long-term contracts, or specialized permanent positions, our recruiting team is ready to assist you.

- "It has been a pleasure working with DP Professionals to find qualified talent. It's been clear from the start that you are not just interested in filling a position. You are committed to finding the right person. Through on-site visits and interviews, you have consistently taken the time to learn what is required to find the ideal fit. Thanks!" Director, Website development company
- "I wanted to take some time to formally thank you and your company for your staffing efforts on the VBMS project for me. DP Professionals was instrumental in helping [us] meet our 30, 60- and 90-day staffing goals and resulted in high praise from our customer. The quality of the personnel that was presented for consideration was high and resulted in numerous hires in both Charleston and our satellite office in Arlington VA. I would recommend DP Professionals to any organization looking for high end Systems and Software Engineering professionals and plan to use you as future staffing needs arise." Director of Systems and Software Engineering, Top 10 defense contractor
- "[...]he staff at DP Professionals, did a very good job of providing us with a quality candidate. They took the time to learn about our business and what we were looking for in an employee so that a proper match could be made. We would definitely use their services in the future." Vice President/General Manager, Commercial printer
- "DP Professionals does an outstanding job as a partner [with us], the on-site VMS on the [insurance] account. DP has an outstanding recruiting team who gets to know their clients' needs at a granular level, resulting in the delivery of high-quality candidates who have been instrumental in the successful completion of [our] projects. I would recommend DP Professionals in your vendor selection process." Program Manager, Vendor management company
- "[Our bank] has had business relations with DP Professionals for approximately 10 years. Their staff has exemplified excellence in all areas of recruiting. Over the years DP Professionals has provided [us] with the highest quality talent. DP Professionals' employees have been a model of professionalism and courtesy service. Their attention to detail and the manager's needs is what sets their service apart from other recruiting firms. I would highly recommend their services to any business." Recruiting Manager/HR Specialist, Bank
- "I have been consistently impressed by both the staff of DP Professionals and the candidates that they have sourced for our organization. DPP has taken considerable time to understand the attributes of [the hospital's] business and culture and has provided us with candidates who truly are an ideal fit.

"The DPP staff is dedicated to quality and care—they are eager to assist in whatever way possible, and responsive to our ever-changing candidate needs. Our account is managed with an unmatched professionalism that is nicely balanced with a personal touch.

"As a client, I am confident that the people who work on our account really understand and appreciate our needs, our specific job requirements, and, most importantly, the needs of our culture. DPP provides [us] with an excellent combination of professionalism, integrity, efficiency and a cost-conscious results-orientation. The integrity of the recruiters whom have worked on our account allows us to place great trust in them and the niche candidates they source on our behalf." Director of Staffing, Hospital
